

EMIL A. L. SIMONSEN

email: els@rff.dk, phone: +45 23 67 40 09

Education

- 2018-2020: Master's degree in economics at the University of Copenhagen. Coursework primarily in applied topics, such as applied econometrics, health economics, and accounting.
- 2015-2017: Bachelor's degree in mathematics with minor in statistics at the University of British Columbia. I took coursework primarily in applied mathematics and statistics.
- 2013-2016: Bachelor's degree in economics at the University of Copenhagen. Coursework in macroeconomics, microeconomics, econometrics, mathematics, descriptive economics, and business economics. All my elective courses were taken at the mathematics department.

Work Experience

- 2022-Present: PhD Student in economics, University of Copenhagen.
- 2020-2022: Research Assistant, Rockwool Foundation Research Unit. Research on partner markets, foster care, and the labor market.
- 2019-2020: Master's Thesis Student, The Danish Center For Social Science Research (VIVE). I wrote my master's thesis in collaboration with VIVE.
- 2018-2020: Student Assistant, Rockwool Foundation Research Unit. I assisted with data analysis on multiple projects, and I also assisted the data manager with various tasks relating to data management.

Presentations

- "What a Difference a Definition Makes: Mismatches in Partner Markets Across Three Decades in Denmark". PAA Annual Meeting 2022, Atlanta, GA.

Unreviewed Publications

- Inge Marie Bryderup, Sofie Aggerbo Johansen, Signe Hald Andersen, Anne Sofie Tegner Anker, Emil Anton Libak Simonsen. (2022). Anbragte børn og unge på døgninstitutioner og socialpædagogiske opholdssteder. Forlaget Klim.
- Simonsen, E.A.L. & Fallesen, Peter. (2022). What a difference a definition makes: Mismatches in partner markets across three decades in Denmark. SocArXiv. DOI: 10.31235/osf.io/ctdg4.

- Simonsen, E.A.L., Fallesen, P, Loft, L.T. & Mortensen, L.H. (2021). The Danish Generations and Gender Survey 2020: Data collection, access and quality of the data. Rockwool Foundation Technical Note no. 21.